Requester's name and address (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
 - Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
 - Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
 - Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
 - Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
 - Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
 - Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
 - Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)
- Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.
- If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.*

South Carolina Society for Respiratory Care (SCSRC)

Exhibit Fee

Description of Activity:

The vendor and exhibit hall at all SCSRC conferences are open to all registrants who are mainly comprised of Respiratory Care students, Managers, Educators and Respiratory Therapists from South Carolina, Georgia and North Carolina. The Exhibitor's booth fee helps to cover the cost of the venue and the expenses related directly to hosting the conference including offsetting costs to allow Respiratory Care students discounted registration fees. If electricity is required at an individual booth, an additional fee maybe applied.

Conferences held by the SCSRC provides Respiratory Therapists an opportunity to earn required educational credits, attend lectures related directly to their profession and see new equipment, techniques and technology. The exhibit hall allows therapists to see advancement in equipment and network with other professionals.

In order to assure that the fee for exhibitor participation will not result in sanctions against participating vendors/exhibitors or the SCSRC under the anti-kickback statute (Section 1128 (b) of the Social Security Act) the SCSRC certifies that:

- SCSRC Conferences have broad based community support (i.e. solicitations not limited to persons having a business relationship with vendors or exhibitors)
- The SCSRC does not take exhibitors' participation in any SCSRC Conference into account when awarding or renewing contracts, purchasing items, or services, or making business referrals.
- Exhibitor and vendor booths will be located outside the lecture hall.
